Bell-Ringing & Call to Worship*

L: There will be a morning song for those whose efforts shield the frail bodies of their elders!

P: Blessed are the merciful.

L: There will be a morning song for those who tend to the wounded!

P: Blessed are the peacemakers.

L: There will be a morning song for those who wipe the sleep from the eyes of the weary!

P: Blessed are the pure in heart.

L: There will be a morning song for those who hunger and thirst for justice!

P: Blessed are the poor.

L: Because You, O Creator are God.

ALL: There will be a morning song for all creation!
There will be a future!

Opening Hymn*      In Christ No East or West      NCH #394

Opening Prayer

L: Welcoming God, you invite us to a banquet where the last can be first – where the humble & the mighty trade places.

P: Teach us to share your abundance without fear. Remind us to greet strangers as angels. Fill us with your Love, that we may welcome others as Christ did, with a spirit of radical hospitality. Amen.

The Church Community Reflects

Old Testament Reading      Jeremiah 2:4-13

Congregational Response (from Hebrews 13)

L: Let mutual love continue;

P: Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers;

L: Remember those who are in prison,

P: As though you were in prison with them;

L: Those who are being tortured,

P: As though you yourselves were being tortured.

L: Do not neglect to do good and share what you have.

ALL: Let mutual love continue.
