Tomorrow - SOUP & REFLECTION SERIES FOR LENT:

Laudato Si', A Call to Care for Our Common Home, by Pope Francis

Our Annual Lenten Soup Supper & Reflection Series will take place on Wednesday evenings, 3/11-4/1, with a simple soup supper at 6 PM, and group reflection & discussion from 6:45-8:15. This year, we are using Pope Francis' profound statement to the world on care for the earth as a background for our own reflection about concrete ways we can 1) seek to become more aware of our place as part of creation and the current crisis; 2) take action to make a difference; and 3) advocate for social change. PLEASE READ Chapter 3 of Laudato Si', "The Human Roots of the Ecological Crisis," as background before this week's meeting. The full text of the book can be found on-line for free at <https://laudatosi.com/watch> If you want to take part in the series, please sign-up in church. For more info, contact John Gill at cosjg@att.net Childcare will be available.

THIS SUNDAY - COS Lunch Discussion: "Muslim peace advocate Fetullah Gulen and the Hizmet (Service) movement in Turkey - resilience with faith and dialogue" with guest speaker Umit Gunebir, President of the Atlantic Institute. After church on Sunday, 3/15 at 12:30 PM. Mr. Gunebir will offer a presentation about the philosophy of Fetulleh Gulen and the movement he started in Turkey, as well as talking about the efforts of the current Turkish government to have him extradited from the U.S. There will be time for discussion afterward. We will provide a light lunch and childcare for those who want to stay.

The Conscious Consumers will sell *Equal Exchange fair trade coffees, teas, and chocolate items this Sunday, March 15. ### Adult Study and Reflection Opportunities

THIS SUNDAY - NEW Sunday Morning Adult Discussion Group Topic!

The Sunday morning group is discussing Broken We Kneel: Reflections on Faith and Citizenship by the well-known religious studies scholar and author, Diana Butler Bass. “Written in the tumultuous aftermath of 9/11 and now a spiritual classic, the book draws on both her personal experience and her knowledge of religious history. Bass looks at Christian identity, patriotism, citizenship, and congregational life in an attempt to answer the central question that so many are struggling with today: ‘To whom do Christians owe deepest allegiance? God or country?’ America's unique and often fractious relationship between church and state is, if anything, more relevant to who we are as a nation than when Diana Butler Bass' examination of it in Broken We Kneel was first published 16 years ago.” Books are available on-line or can be ordered from a local bookstore like Union Avenue Books or Barnes and Noble Booksellers. We meet in Shalom House, gathering at 9:30 AM.

LISTEN to a Conversation with Knoxville’s New Mayor, Indya Kincannon. For a stimulating and revealing conversation with Knoxville’s new mayor, Indya Kincannon, check out her conversation with John Stewart, Friday March 13, 7:30 PM on Knox County’s community TV station: Comcast channel 12, Charter channel 193, WOW!/Knology channel 6, ATT U-VerseChannel 99. John and the Mayor discuss such topics as why she ran for mayor, how her underdog campaign won, her first budget priorities, such as affordable housing, and the one compelling accomplishment she hopes to achieve during her tenure. It’s a lively and informative half-hour.

Safe Church Health Practices in response to coronavirus concerns

With the continued spread of the coronavirus, our denomination, the UCC, has provided information to provide guidance about best practices to stay healthy during a coronavirus outbreak. This Thursday, our Church Council will discuss ways we might do things differently during this time as well. The basic information shared below should not be construed as medical advice, but as best practices and basic precautions. Some of these everyday precautions, focused on good hygiene measures, are common sense —helpful to keep in mind anytime and especially during colds and flu season. Go to www.ucc.org or www.secucc.org for the complete info from our denomination. Most of all, stay calm, stay kind, and stay healthy! John Gill, Pastor

BEST PRACTICES

- + Stay home or keep your children home if you or your children are feeling sick.
- + Wash your hands frequently.
- + Avoid touching your face with unwashed hands.
- + Disinfect surfaces used regularly before and after use.
- + Use hand sanitizer.
- + Avoid close contact with someone who is sick.
- + Practice special care around older people and those who are dealing with other underlying health concerns

GREETING ONE ANOTHER IN CHURCH - Until the coronavirus outbreak declines, try to use fun and creative ways to greet one another in church rather than hugging or shaking hands. This is an intentional way of expressing care and affection toward one another

- + Virtual hugs where one person spreads arms and the recipient self-hugs in response
- + American Sign Language sign for love (closed hands, with arms crossed at wrists over chest, rock back and forth as if hugging)
- + The well-known holy elbow bump
- + Bowing to one another with hands together as in prayer, eastern or namaste style

Other practices: We already use individual communion cups and pieces of bread. The Council will consider other options.

The next COS Current Events Salon will be held Friday, March 20th at 7PM at Church of the Savior. The main media topic worldwide is without question the coronavirus - this is the first time in 50 years that we have had a mandatory quarantine. What is the coronavirus? What is known about it, how much should we worry about it, and what can we do to protect ourselves and our loved ones if it spreads further? Does the government do enough? Who should we trust? Is our economy in jeopardy due to the coronavirus. What are your thoughts? Please also feel free to bring up any topic that interests you. Come at 7 PM on Friday the 20th, prepared to have a good time!

In our ongoing efforts to make our annual fundraising events both fun and outward facing, we are planning this special event to honor two COS members who are well-known in the wider community.

John and Nancy have spent their lives in service to others, demonstrated through their deep faith and commitment to social justice and public service. Please plan to join John and Nancy's family, friends, and colleagues for a lively celebration of two lives marked by spiritual values, action, and accomplishments.

You can reserve your spot at <http://cos-ucc.org/stewart/> or sign-up in church. Space is limited so don't wait too long.

Community/Immigration Concern

A COS Immigrant Accompaniment Team has been working with a young undocumented high school student, named Estefany, and her family for several years. Keith Richardson drove her and her mother to Memphis for an immigration hearing yesterday. A sister UCC church in Memphis provided housing in their hostel. Estefany's sponsor, a Spanish teacher at Bearden High School named Karen Lattus, sent the following report: I write with the heartbreaking news that Estefany's asylum case was denied. Memphis is currently denying over 80% of cases ... even up to 95% by some counts ... but we hoped that surely a 17 year-old honors student with glowing letters of recommendation had a chance if anyone did. I fear that is the current answer ... that no one has a chance. Estefany was at least allowed to come home to Knoxville to await the deportation date, so we are thankful she was not held in detention. I have contacted her lawyer to ask if there is anything we can do to mobilize as a community on her behalf. I will pass on any information I get. Please keep her family in mind as they deal with this devastating news and try to figure out the safest plan for their younger daughter. Keith, they are so appreciative of your kindness, from the music and conversation to your generosity in driving all that way in such a short turnaround. Blanca wanted to know how much she could pay you; I explained that we are horrified by this situation and doing what we can for our neighbors during a very shameful time in our country.

I, too, am grateful to Keith for driving Estefany and her mom to Memphis, and being such a support to them. Acts like these keep us human and affirm the humanity of those who are being oppressed in times like these. We can't stop fighting for that. John Gill, Pastor

WIDER COMMUNITY EVENTS AND ISSUES!

SAVE THE DATE - 3/26 - Nadia Bolz-Weber talk and book signing for Shameless: A Sexual Reformation on March 26, 7 PM, at Church of the Ascension.

If you would like to do more than just worry about the threat of nuclear weapons, read on.

STOP THE NEW NUCLEAR ARMS RACE, an international conference sponsored by The Oak Ridge Environmental Peace Alliance will explore the ways people around the world are working to make the world safer by getting rid of nuclear weapons. The conference will be held at Maryville College, May 22-25, 2020. You can register (required, by April 24) at orepa.org/registration-form.

Workshops will focus on strategies and tools being used around the globe to advance the nuclear abolition agenda. These include looking at corporate and financial investment in nuclear weapons, campus connections to the Bomb, resistance efforts around the world, efforts to get cities, towns and states to support the Nuclear Ban Treaty, and ways to use the Ban Treaty to raise awareness.

Leaders are coming from The Netherlands, Switzerland, Germany, Australia, Kazakhstan and across the United States. Scholarships are available for under-30 participants. More information is available at nukewatchinfo.org/stop\_new\_nuclear\_arms\_race

It's not all work and no play. On Saturday night, we'll have music and cake and storytelling as we celebrate the 40th birthdays of OREPA's co-organizers for the conference: Nukewatch and The Nuclear Resister, and the fortieth anniversary of the very first Plowshares action with some of the original participants.

Joys

Funding for this trip to represent Knoxville, the state, and COS to include travel and registration for the event will cost approximately $1,200. I am seeking opportunities to provide services such as cleaning, organizing, light home repair services to help fund this trip. (I'm even open to serenading you with some favorite pop tunes on the piano during dinner)." Email Bryon for more details: pianosing2@gmail.com.
